MARY E. D'ANDREA, CLERK

Fact that defendants in this Complaint seized this plaintiff's personal property on the date of 4-13-00, which consisted of this plaintiff's legal records, official documents, and evidence transcripts needed for specific legal pursuits and remedies, which in fact said seizure prevented/hindered/obstructed this plaintiff's ability to pursue critical legal efforts and relief constitutes a direct violation of this plaintiff's 4th Amendment Rights, and that the parties responsible for such violation and denial of legal pursuits and justice must be accountable for all restitutions (forthcoming or possible) related to all related incidents and violations, and any relief prospects lost or hindered due to the obstruction caused relative to any of the actions of those committing the violations (or supportive) responsible or causative of any and all obstructions of legal pursuits and or remedies sought.

3. That defendants in this Case, in their individual capacities, under color of state, did, have, and continue to respond to this plaintiff with retaliatory conduct and actions made possible through their positions of authority, as they are Administrative staff of the (D.O.C.) of the S.C.I. Mahanoy facility, in which this plaintiff is detained and in the direct care and custody, subject to the conduct and actions (treatment) of the perspective opponents cited as defendants in this Case.
4. The citations, record, and evidence in this complaint warrant relief, remedy, and compensation (suffering/abuse/damages/justice), which would include remedy for the situations and treatment suffered, rectification of this inmates record which has been compromised and altered unjustly and by scandal, and justice to be established for past violations/abuses, present treatment free from retaliations and adverse treatment, notwithstanding this plaintiff's future.
5. WHEREFORE this petitioner motions this Court for justice and Judgement in this Case No. 1:01-cv-00904.
